

Business Intelligence Specialist

The Business Intelligence Specialist's role is to strategically design and implement Business Intelligence software and systems, including integration with databases and data warehouses. This includes selecting, blueprinting, gathering requirements, designing, and rolling out Business Intelligence solutions. The Business Intelligence Specialist is also responsible for ensuring high levels of Business Intelligence availability through support functions and in-depth testing.

Principal responsibilities include:

- Responsible for all activities related to the design and development of enterprise wide data analysis and reporting solutions.
- Produce standard reporting / business intelligence 'packages' (dashboards, presentations, etc.) for use by NetRefer's management.
- Review and evaluate work and prepare performance reports
- Confer with and advise subordinates on administrative policies and procedures, technical problems, priorities, and methods.
- Prepare activity and progress reports regarding the business intelligence section.
- Provide input to the development department regarding company data standards and practices

Knowledge requirements:

- SQL Server Databases
- Data warehousing techniques
- Knowledge in data organisation